WILD & SCENIC ON TOUR
SCHOOL PROGRAM 5-8 GR

The Facemask
A facemask whisks away through the skies, traversing across the city on its way to the coast, threatening to end its journey at the bottom of the ocean.

I’m a Child
Original animated story about a young boy’s journey to understand the impact of global warming, guided by a shapeshifting raven.

The Bird Nerds of Mono Lake
Bird banding at Mono Lake

I am Cheo
this unique film tells the story of a young boy named Cheo who, from the sights and smells of his abuela’s kitchen, takes a sweeping cinematic journey across the lands that are both his history and his future.

For more info, contact ontour@wildandscenicfilmfestival.org
Goodbye Home
As bushfires threaten to engulf a small coastal town, animal and human families prepare to evacuate their homes.

Protecting the Monarch Butterfly
Monarch butterflies have one of the longest migrations of any insects, so they depend on critical habitat for their survival during their long journey. Organizations like the Pollinator Conservation Association are committed to protecting and restoring habitat to help save this iconic species.

If You Give a Beach a Bottle
Inspired by a picture book, Max Romey heads to a remote beach on Alaska’s coastline in search of marine debris. What he finds is a different story altogether.

My Last Day of Summer
It is the last day of summer and Julia is at the local bike shop hoping that her bike can be fixed. While checking out the flashy displays of new bikes and shiny components, a comic book catches her eye. The comic explores a world which stylizes the sights and sounds she experiences on the trails. The comic captures her imagination and she soon finds herself

For more info, contact ontour@wildandscenicfilmfestival.org